

The Bandy Heritage Center
presents

STATE
HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT OF GEORGIA SYSTEM OF STATE ROADS

Scale of Miles

Approved by Highway Board
Session May 1929
State Highway Engineer
John T. ...
J. ...
LE C
COMPLETED
UNDER CONSTRUCTION
UNIMPROVED
STATE ROUTE
MILEAGE SET
U.S. INTERSTATE
CAPITAL COUNTY SEA
JUNCTION ROAD
COMPLETED
FA SYSTEM
COMPLETED

Gateway to the South

Remembering
the Dixie Highway

Traveling Exhibit

441

"All the Comforts of Home" on the Road
A completely equipped camp on wheels that follows your motor car anywhere.
The Adams Folding Motor Bungalow is the most modern and comfortable of all motor campers.

ADAMS TRAILER CORPORATION, 140 and 142nd Street, Great Neck, New York, N. Y.

EXHIBIT AT A GLANCE

Gateway to the South

- 24 curved stand-alone panels
- Measurements for individual panel:
84”H x 26.5”W x 20”D
- 53 running feet if placed side by side; ca. 6 feet in diameter each if placed in circles of 8

$300 per 30 days; plus delivery and installation fees

The Bandy Heritage Center for Northwest Georgia has prepared a traveling exhibit commemorating the Dixie Highway. This exhibit consists of photographs illustrating topics such as tourism, advertisement, and business along the Dixie highway.

Gateway to the South may be booked by contacting Bandy Center Project Director Brian Hilliard — bhilliar@daltonstate.edu or 706-272-4452.

